

Community Gardens Stroll

Time to stroll some gardens! This year we are going to stroll through community gardens and see what they are all about. First stop will be The Ability Garden in Massillon then on to the Mount Pleasant Community Garden in North Canton. After our tours, refreshments will be provided.

July 10, 2018
6:00-8:00 pm

Meet at The Ability Garden in Massillon at 6 pm.

You might want to consider carpooling with a friend or 2.

Due to size of the garden area, we need to limit participation to 50 attendees

RSVP no later than July 2

First Stroll
The Ability Garden
Park at Massillon Rec Center at 505 Erie St N.

Someone will be at the Rec Center parking lot to direct you to the garden. There is no parking at the garden.

6-6:45 pm
Speakers will be our own MGVs, Marie Kramer and Paul Johnson. This is the second summer that Marie and Paul have mentored individuals with special needs from Echoing Hills Village on vegetable gardening. They not only learn gardening skills, but social skills as well.

There is about a 20-minute drive to our next garden.

Second Stroll
Mount Pleasant Community Garden
at Mount Pleasant Church of the Brethren
4152 Mt. Pleasant St. NW, North Canton

Please park in the church parking lot and you will be directed to the garden.

7:15-8:00 pm
Julie Myers will be your speaker. This community garden was spearheaded by Julie in 2011. Since then, church and community members have provided over 80,000 pounds of fresh, nutritious produce for Stark County residents who depend on the Stark County Hunger Task Force.

Refreshments will be provided in the church fellowship hall following the tour.

Hope to see you in the Garden!
