

It's Tea Time!

Who doesn't enjoy a nice cup of hot tea
on a cold winter day?

Tea, not unlike beer or wine, has become a drink that folks are eager to taste and to learn about the many cultivars and varieties of herbal combinations. Come learn about the various teas throughout the world.

Terry Gabet

Terry Gabet, co-owner of the Ohio Tea Company, retired from the finance industry and decided to plunge into a lot of hot water! Terry will share his knowledge of tea from growing various cultivars to harvesting, roasting and brewing. He will discuss tea varieties from white to black and everything in between.
