It's Not That Complicated
Really!Tuesday, January 12, 2021
Social time @ 6:00 pm

Don't skip meetings and Continuing Education opportunities because you are not a computer person. The goal of tonight's session is to give us the tools to use the bells and whistles of Zoom for participating in Continuing Education, committee meetings and presenting educational events for others. Those of you who have been avoiding Zoom should bite the bullet and give it a try!
