

Stark County MASTER GARDENER VOLUNTEERS

We're Never Too Old to Garden!

You don't have to stop gardening just because you're slightly older than you used to be. Learn good habits, techniques, tools, and Universal Design solutions to continue gardening with a disability, arthritis, low vision, & other age or health related conditions. Special attention will be given to decreasing the risk of secondary injury; working smarter, not harder; and modifying your garden and the way you work to fit your ability, now and in the future.

Laura Akgerman

Laura is the Disability Services Coordinator for Ohio AgrAbility & OSU Extension. She is a two-time OSU Alum, with degrees in English and Rehabilitation services. She presents workshops on Gardening with Arthritis, Farming with a disability, AgriTourism, and other disability related issues for Ohio AgrAbility and OSU Extension. She grew up outside Sunbury Ohio, was active in 4-H in Delaware county, & was very proud of her Dad & brother who ran Cherryhill Aquatics, the family waterlily nursery, from 1986 to 2012.
